

Training Event!

Tuesday, April 25th
11:00am until 4:00pm

We will be hosting a training class for S&P exhaust fans in Alliance. This class will cover some of the selling points for exhaust fans, S&P's quick ship program and where to find opportunities in commercial exhaust. If you are interested in learning more about S&P's great line of products, please contact John Ramos or Aaron Curtiss.

Lunch will be provided.
